Programs: For Seniors

Skip presents concerts featuring the music of the Old West for mature audiences enrolled in Elder Hostel programs, at assisted living communities and at nursing homes. Seniors show great enthusiasm for Skip's performances, as many recall the old songs of their youth, have spent time on ranches in the West, or fondly remember a relative who perhaps played the old songs. Through their mutual interest in history, Skip and mature audiences connect from start to finish.

Skip has performed for senior audiences in Chicago, Seattle, West Virginia, Kansas and Massachusetts.

"Rarely have we enjoyed a more professional yet intimate production, and never have we been more enchanted. Your personal charm, your extraordinary talent as a musician and teacher, the delightful way you involve the audience, your quiet humor and the depth of your knowledge of the history of the American West are the talk of this community."
